NY PROJECTS burst onto the global scene in 2007, earning wide praise as a significant new source of design and arts thinking. A rapid succession of original events, exhibitions and productions has cemented our position among collectors, critics and institutions alike, around the world.

Today NY PROJECTS is known as a progressive art and design, advisory and production firm. Recent programs have included the Asian lecture series by Christo and Jeanne-Claude, Global Dialogues at the AIA Center for Architecture, and an acclaimed exhibition of works by Zaha Hadid and Patrik Schumacher in Seoul, the World Design Capital for 2010.

Current productions by NY PROJECTS include new limited editions by Zaha Hadid and Patrik Schumacher, the Seoul Series.

Schumacher in Seoul, the World Design Capital for 2010. Created in a range of materials, these fluid and innovative works include Fireplace, Vases, Tea Services, Desk and Table.

NY PROJECTS is led by president and founder Yung Hee Kim. Based in New York City, our offices are located in the Chelsea neighborhood amidst world-renowned galleries and significant new architectural projects.
